

NOTICE OF HIGHWAY DESIGN MEETING

The Tennessee Department of Transportation (TDOT) will conduct a Highway Design Meeting on April 13, 2010 in the North Cumberland Elementary School, 7657 Highway 127 N, Crossville, TN to discuss two projects on SR-28 (US-127).

The first project, from north of I-40 to near Legion Road, proposes to reconstruct SR-28 (US-127) using five 12' travel lanes and two 12' shoulders with curb and gutter from the existing five lane roadway north of I-40 through the intersection of SR 28 with Tabor Loop Road and Ed Houston Road. A divided highway consisting of two 12' travel lanes and a 12' shoulder in each direction around a 48' median will be built from north of the Tabor Loop Road and Ed Houston Road intersection to north of the North Cumberland Elementary School. The reconstructed roadway will follow the existing alignment of SR 28.

The second project will be SR-28 (US-27), from near Legion Rd to near Hollow Lane which proposes to reconstruct SR-28 (US-127) using a divided highway consisting of two 12' travel lanes and a 12' shoulder in each direction around a 48' median from north of the North Cumberland Elementary School through the intersection of SR-28 and Hollow Lane. The reconstructed roadway will follow the existing alignment of SR-28 in Cumberland County as shown on the general location maps.

This meeting will be held from 5:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. during which time there will be a presentation followed by a question and answer session. The public is invited to ask questions and make comments during the meeting. Representatives of TDOT will be present to answer questions on any aspect of the project.
