

NOTICE OF HIGHWAY DESIGN MEETING

The Tennessee Department of Transportation (TDOT) will conduct a Highway Design Meeting on January 26, 2012 in the cafeteria of Scales Elementary School, 2340 St. Andrews Drive, Murfreesboro TN 37128 to discuss the SR-99 (New Salem Highway) from Southwest Loop Road to Cason Lane project in Rutherford County as shown on the general location map.

This project proposes to widen SR-99 (New Salem Road) for an approximate distance of 2.5 miles on existing alignment. Construction along SR-99 will begin approximately 1/2 mile west of Southwest Loop Road and extend to Cason Lane. The proposed roadway typical section will consist of four (4) 12' traffic lanes, one (1) 12' center turn lane, and 12' shoulders with curb and gutter and sidewalks within a 108' right-of-way. Additional slope and construction easement will be required adjacent to the sidewalks.

The meeting will be held from 5:00 – 7:00 p.m. during which time there will be a presentation and question and answer session. The public is invited to ask questions and make comments during the meeting. Representatives from the Tennessee Department of Transportation will be present to answer questions on any aspect of the project. The preliminary plans will be displayed and the public is invited to review the displays anytime within the scheduled two hours.

Roadway plans are available for public inspection at the office of:
