2006 ANNUAL DBE MEETING SUPPORTS BUSINESS GROWTH

The Tennessee Department of Transportation (TDOT) Civil Rights Office Small Business Development Program (SBDP) held its Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (DBE) Annual Meeting at the Beautiful Downtown Sheraton Hotel in Nashville this past September.

The Welcome was delivered by Cammie Davenport Woodle, Executive Director of The Civil Rights Office and Paul Deggs, Chief of Engineering of Construction representing Commissioner Gerald Nicely. A key panel presentation covering all the divisions of TDOT contracting was made by other TDOT Departments.

Thanks to the Prime Contractors who explored matchmaking opportunities with the DBEs. TDOT was represented by Barry Rawls in Purchasing and David Donoho, Director of Construction.

The afternoon Program was an overview of the Benefits and Roles of the DBE Program by The Civil Rights Office and a training workshop by Victor Tyler and the TDOT SBDP Business Assistance Center.

As Supportive Services Contractor, Business Resource Group (BRG) was the Event Planner.

To All TDOT DBEs, Thank You for an Outstanding Year!
